

Neal Raymond Hersh and Joseph Mannis

Founding Partners, Hersh Mannis LLP

Neal Raymond Hersh is a founding partner of Hersh Mannis LLP and has practiced family law for nearly 40 years. Nationally known for representing public figures, celebrities and high-asset individuals, Hersh is a leader in his field. His accolades include the prestigious Max Goodman Family Law Legacy Award from his alma mater, Southwestern Law School, for his contributions to the integrity and knowledge of law, and being selected by his peers to be one of two deans to lead the 24th Annual Trial Advocacy Institute of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers. Variety's "Legal Impact Report" honored him as one of the top 50 attorneys for his innovation and significant impact on the entertainment community in Los Angeles. That same year, he was also among a select list of esteemed lawyers honored and nominated by the Los Angeles Business Journal's Leaders in Law.

When it comes to philanthropy, Hersh has supported a variety of organizations, including but not limited to LACMA, KCRW, Make-A-Wish Foundation (board member) and Jewish Big Brothers Big Sisters of Los Angeles (board member).

The firm's fellow founding partner, Joseph Mannis, is also an accomplished altruist. In 2016, the Beverly Hills Bar Association honored Mannis as a "legend" in family law. He was also included in Variety's "Legal Impact Report" listing of attorneys who have made a significant difference in the industry, and on the Los Angeles Business Journal's 2016 Leaders of Law list.

Charitably, Mannis is currently chairman emeritus of Project Angel Food, which delivers healthy meals throughout L.A. County to those battling debilitating illnesses. Since its inception, Project Angel Food has provided more than 10 million complimentary meals and continues to prepare more than 10,000 meals per week. What began as an organization to serve people living with HIV/AIDS has become a lifeline for men and women living with cancer, kidney failure, congestive heart failure and diabetes. Mannis was honored with the Volunteer of the Year Award in September 2016 for his six years of commitment and support to the cause. Contact the legacies: 9150 Wilshire Blvd., Ste. 209, Beverly Hills, 310.786.1910, hershmannis.com; Get involved: Project Angel Food, 922 Vine St., Los Angeles, 323.845.1800, angelfood.org
